

“Biblical Empiricism” and the Existence of God

What is Empiricism?

How Can Our Senses Be Used (Materialism vs Immaterialism)?

“Biblical Empiricism”

Seeing (John 14:6-9)

What do you say when you finally ‘get it’?

How can we ‘see’ God?

Smelling (2 Corinthians 2:13-15)

What do you say when you’ve experienced something terrible?

How can we ‘smell’ God?

Touching (Matthew 20:29-34)

What do you say when you experience something powerful or moving?

How can we ‘touch’ or ‘hold on to’ God?

Hearing (Colossians 1:3-6)

What do you say when you agree with someone?

How can we hear God?

Tasting (Psalm 34:7-9)

What do you say when you experience something you really like?

How can we taste God?

The “Biblical Method” (Read John 7:14-17)

The “Biblical Laboratory” (Read 1 Corinthians 12:12-20)

For more information, visit www.PleaseConvinceMe.com

“Biblical Empiricism” and the Existence of God

What is Empiricism?

How Can Our Senses Be Used (Materialism vs Immaterialism)?

“Biblical Empiricism”

Seeing (John 14:6-9)

What do you say when you finally ‘get it’?

How can we ‘see’ God?

Smelling (2 Corinthians 2:13-15)

What do you say when you’ve experienced something terrible?

How can we ‘smell’ God?

Touching (Matthew 20:29-34)

What do you say when you experience something powerful or moving?

How can we ‘touch’ or ‘hold on to’ God?

Hearing (Colossians 1:3-6)

What do you say when you agree with someone?

How can we hear God?

Tasting (Psalm 34:7-9)

What do you say when you experience something you really like?

How can we taste God?

The “Biblical Method” (Read John 7:14-17)

The “Biblical Laboratory” (Read 1 Corinthians 12:12-20)

For more information, visit www.PleaseConvinceMe.com